

Committee Chair Term Limits

A member may serve as Committee Chair for a maximum of two one-year terms for terms beginning after January 1, 2009. The member may serve as Chair of the same committee after a one-year absence as Chair of the Committee. Each term is defined as one-year and appointed by the Chapter President-elect for new terms beginning on January 1 and ending on December 31. If circumstances dictate, the President-elect shall have the authority to extend the term of the Chairperson beyond two years.
