The Education Committee Presents:

High-Tension Living: Harassment in Community Associations

This course will discuss harassment within community associations in various forms – we'll touch on harassment directed towards management, staff, Board members and vendors, as well as alleged harassment by these parties, but the primary focus of this program will be the Association's role with respect to neighbor-to-neighbor issues.

We'll discuss:

- When should (must) the board get involved?
- Fair Housing Act/HUD considerations
- Remedial tools and strategies
- What NOT to do
- When to involve legal counsel
- When to notify the HOA's insurance carrier(s)

Facilitators are:

A.J. Scott, CIRMS Cline Agency Insurance Brokers
David Wankel, Esq., Iger Wankel & Bonkowski, LLP

Register online or mail to CAI-OC, 1971 East 4th St., Ste. 280 Santa Ana, CA 92705
